The Valley of Pittsburgh is offering new and exciting ways to help our members to enjoy their Scottish Rite journey and to offer ways for new members to start their Scottish Rite journey. At these degree days, new members will be able to join the Scottish Rite and our existing members will be able to see live degree work and fellowship with each other in new places. We hope everyone takes advantage of these opportunities.

Remember, online petitions are available through our website www.valleyofpittsburgh.org

Below are the proposed dates and degrees for our current Scottish Rite year. Our degree year will culminate with a Spring Class honoring our own Jeffrey M. Wonderling as the Right Worshipful Grand Master. At this Class, any new Scottish Rite Mason will be able to receive his 32nd Degree.

- Thursday, January 20th, 2022 – Washington Masonic Temple – 7:00 pm
 - 4th & 14th Degrees
- Saturday, February 26th, 2022 – GPMC – 10:30 am
 - 4th & 28th Degrees
 - Fellowship Breakfast preceding conferral
- Saturday, May 14th, 2022 – GPMC – 8:00 am
 - Grand Master’s Class
 - Degrees TBD & 32nd Degree

STORY OF THE CRUCIFIXION

You are invited to attend the observance of the “Story of the Crucifixion” at the Greater Pittsburgh Masonic Center on Palm Sunday, April 10th at 3:00 p.m. The enactment will be sponsored by the past and present officers of Pittsburgh Chapter of Rose Croix with Kris M. Douglas, 32°, Most Wise Master presiding. This presentation presents a very special opportunity to invite both family and friends to an inspirational production by the Valley degree workers.

There is no charge for the passion play.

CRUCIFIXION DINNER RESERVATION

At 5:00 p.m. dinner will be served. Tickets are $15/person. Tickets must be paid for prior to the performance and picked up at the door.
